SHERIFF'S OFFICE SEEKS ASSISTANCE REGARDING ROBBERY

WAUKEGAN, IL. – Lake County Sheriff's Office Investigators are seeking assistance in learning the identity of an individual responsible for the November 4, 2003 Armed Robbery of the Clark Gas Station located at 26025 Grand Avenue in Ingleside, IL.

Investigators state the lone robber entered the gas station at approximately 9:20 PM, armed with an 8" butcher knife. The robber approached the clerk at the counter and demanded money. After the cash register was opened, the robber reached in and took approximately $150.00 in currency. The robber fled the store on foot, and was last seen running southbound.

The robber is described as a white male in his late teens or early twenties, six foot tall, thin build and spoke with a deep voice. He was wearing blue jeans, a dark hoodie sweatshirt and had a white t-shirt wrapped around his face and head.

Sheriff's Office Investigators are asking anyone with information regarding this Armed Robbery to call either the Criminal Investigations Division at (847) 377-4250, or Lake County Crimestoppers at (847) 662-2222.
